Remembering the Basque refugee children in Wickham Market, 1938-1939

Nearly a hundred Basque children, refugees from the Spanish Civil War, were forced to move to the workhouse at Wickham Market in early 1938.

They were almost entirely dependent on the support of local individuals and organisations.

This event is to mark the 80th anniversary of the Basque children's arrival in Wickham Market. Come and find out more about their remarkable story.
